

Extending your ability to help people with HIV

HIV+ individuals benefit from an extensive, statewide network of health care and support services – Illinois HIV Care Connect. Once enrolled, people with HIV receive medical case management services at no charge, regardless of income. And they may qualify for a range of other services that help them achieve optimal health and self-sufficiency. By contacting Illinois HIV Care Connect, you extend your ability to stop the spread and progression of HIV.

Visit www.hivcareconnect.com to learn more.

Illinois
HiV
Care Connect